Mimicking Nature's Water Cycle In 3 Steps

STEP 1 PURIFY

Purification ensures that the water you drink is free of chemicals and contaminants that have accumulated along the way and in pipelines.

STEP 2 AERATE

The vortex increases gas transfer between air and water, infusing fresh oxygen and accelerating the evaporation of volatile compounds.

STEP 3 MINERALIZE

It is the minerals that give the spring water its taste and nutritional value. Add a few drops of highly concentrated Essential MAYU Mineral Blend.

MAYU Swirl

The Re-birth of Water

Why Swirl?

Having studied water for years we've discovered how its inward flowing movement improves the characteristics of the water and how it provides us with the vitality and benefits of living water in nature.

All living beings and plants use the inward flowing vortex. Even our blood flows in this manner. It is the uplifting, improving motion of nature.

- Enhance the quality and taste of your drinking water.
- Get inspired by the beauty and the relaxing energy of living water.
- Drink more water and less sugar.

Inspired By Nature, Backed By Science

The Swirl restores the natural properties and structure of drinking water. Tap water comes out "traumatized" after its long journey through pressurisation and straight pipelines. Return your water to its natural sweet taste, silky texture, and healthy equilibrium with a MAYU Swirl.

How Does It Work?

Chemically the vortex in MAYU Swirl increases gas transfer between air and water in an aeration process, which results in:

- Balanced Oxygen
- Release of VOC (Volatile Organic Compounds)
- Raised pH level
- Improved taste

From Our Customers

"One of the best purchases I've ever made. Our kids love using it and watching the water spin."

Wynne W.

"I was skeptical at first, but it does significantly enhance the taste and texture of the water."

Victor M

"My tap water has a strong chlorine smell. I bought mayu to get rid of it and I did well. The swirl is mesmerizing. The whole object is beautiful."

Luc M

Essential Blend

The modern diet leaves us deficient in many essential nutrients and trace minerals.

MAYU Essential Mineral Blend is an all-natural, organic way to obtain those nutrients. It is scientifically blended to produce delicious, nutrient-packed water, high in trace minerals that can easily be absorbed by the body.

The Essential Blend is IDEAL for water filtered by reverse osmosis or thermal distillation, as those systems remove the essential minerals from your water together with the pollutants and contaminants.

Electrolyte Blend

Energize your water.

Electrolytes are minerals that conduct electricity when dissolved in water. They are distributed through the fluid in the body and use their electrical energy to facilitate critical body functions in the heart, blood, muscles and nervous system.

Good for:

- Mineral replenishment and optimal hydration
- Before/during/after your workout
- Quick hydration
- Help cure hangovers/dehydration

To replace the electrolytes lost in sweat (sodium, potassium, magnesium, and more), drinking electrolyte-enhanced water over regular drinking water while exercising is recommended.

From Our Customers

"So easy to just drop in these minerals every morning and know I'm receiving what I need.

Especially after filtering water.

I love the smooth yet super subtle taste it gives to every glass."

Salvatore G.

"I was worried that adding drops to my water would make it "taste funny"..."

Just the opposite! Somehow, my water tastes more like WATER!

Highly recommend."

Amber D.

"Just love it"
